Once upon a time there lived a king. He had three sons. It was time for them to get married. The old man gave his sons bows and arrows and asked to shoot as far as they could. He said they had to look for a wife where the arrows would land. The first son shot an arrow and it dropped at the house of a rich aristocrat. The second son shot an arrow and it landed at the house of merchant. The third son shot an arrow and it flew to the swamp.

The young men went to look for arrows and had to come back with wives. The third son walked on the swamp for a long time and couldn't find his arrow and then he saw a frog. It was sitting on a stone holding his arrow in its mouth. The young man took the frog and brought it home. His brothers laughed at him and said he was mad to marry the frog but he obeyed his father and made the right choice because the frog was magic and turned into a beautiful princess.
